1. █ who presented himself to source as a Yugoslav, asked source for help in getting a job here or on a ship so he could work his way to another country. According to source, █ was a deputy in the Yugoslav Parliament in 1935. At some time in 1945 he was arrested by TITO. He explained that he was released at the demand of some of the people from his district.

2. █ has been living in Damascus with other Yugoslav and Albanian refugees in rather miserable conditions. He came to source and asked for assistance. Source sent him to Miss Van Lipp, of the I.R.O. (International Refugee Organization), and to Dr. Mansafa, KHALIDI, head of the local IKHMAN al-MUSLIMIN.

3. █ gave source the following information about Albanian affairs:

All KLISSURA, an Albanian living now in Damascus, returned on or about April 25 from a visit with King ZOG in Egypt. Djafar DRAWA, another Albanian in Damascus, who was Minister of the Interior during the Italian occupation, has been invited to Cairo to see King ZOG. The latter has also invited ARQUZA, a former Albanian Prime Minister, now resident in Italy, to come to see him.
